

Excellence in Labor Relations Award Nomination Form

The Excellence In Labor Relations Award

Presented by the Minnesota Public Employer Labor Relations Association (MPELRA), the Minnesota Public Employers Labor Relations Association (MPELRA) presents the Excellence in Labor Relations Award. This annual award is to be given to an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the management role in public sector labor relations during their career.

The Excellence in Labor Relations Award represents MPELRA's highest acknowledgment of the recipient's dedication and achievement in the development of positive labor-management relations. It signifies professional efforts resulting in successful labor relation over an extended period of time.

Are you ready to celebrate extraordinary leaders who are transforming the landscape of public service?

Nominee Information

Nominee Name:

Date:

Nominee's Employer:

Nominee's Title:

Phone Number:

Email Address:

Is the nominee a current member of MPELRA?

Does the nominee know of this nomination?

Will the nominee be attending the upcoming summer conference?

Person Submitting Nomination

Nominator's Name:

Nominator's Employer:

Nominator's Title:

Phone Number:

Email Address:

Outline in detail on page 2 the reason and basis for the nomination.

The nominee must demonstrate commitment to public sector labor relations through innovative leadership, contributions to employer initiatives, organizations, or legislation, and significant professional achievements over years of service. Their career should showcase extensive public sector experience, increasing responsibilities, and impactful efforts fostering effective management-labor relations.

Please limit your response to the box below.